Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-11 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art of Fisher (U. S. Patent 5,507,485) teaches a portable computer to facilitate the game of golf is programmed to record a golfer's score and keep track of various shots and the results of related wagering. Other close related prior art Cooper (U. S. Patent 5,689,560) discloses enabling trial period use of software product with a try-and-buy user interaction.

In regarding to independent claims 1 and 6-11, Fisher and Cooper taken either individually or in combination with other prior art of record fails to teach or suggest providing golfer with a gratis trial period for displaying various type of information on display monitor of the golf cart, wherein the gratis period is less than an entire round of play of the course, and the cart display will be inactivated unless at the end of the gratis period a payment authorization for completion of the round is made.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
